Held during the month of February
between 12th- 25th.

Art heads -
Ann Thomas , Sanjana Raju

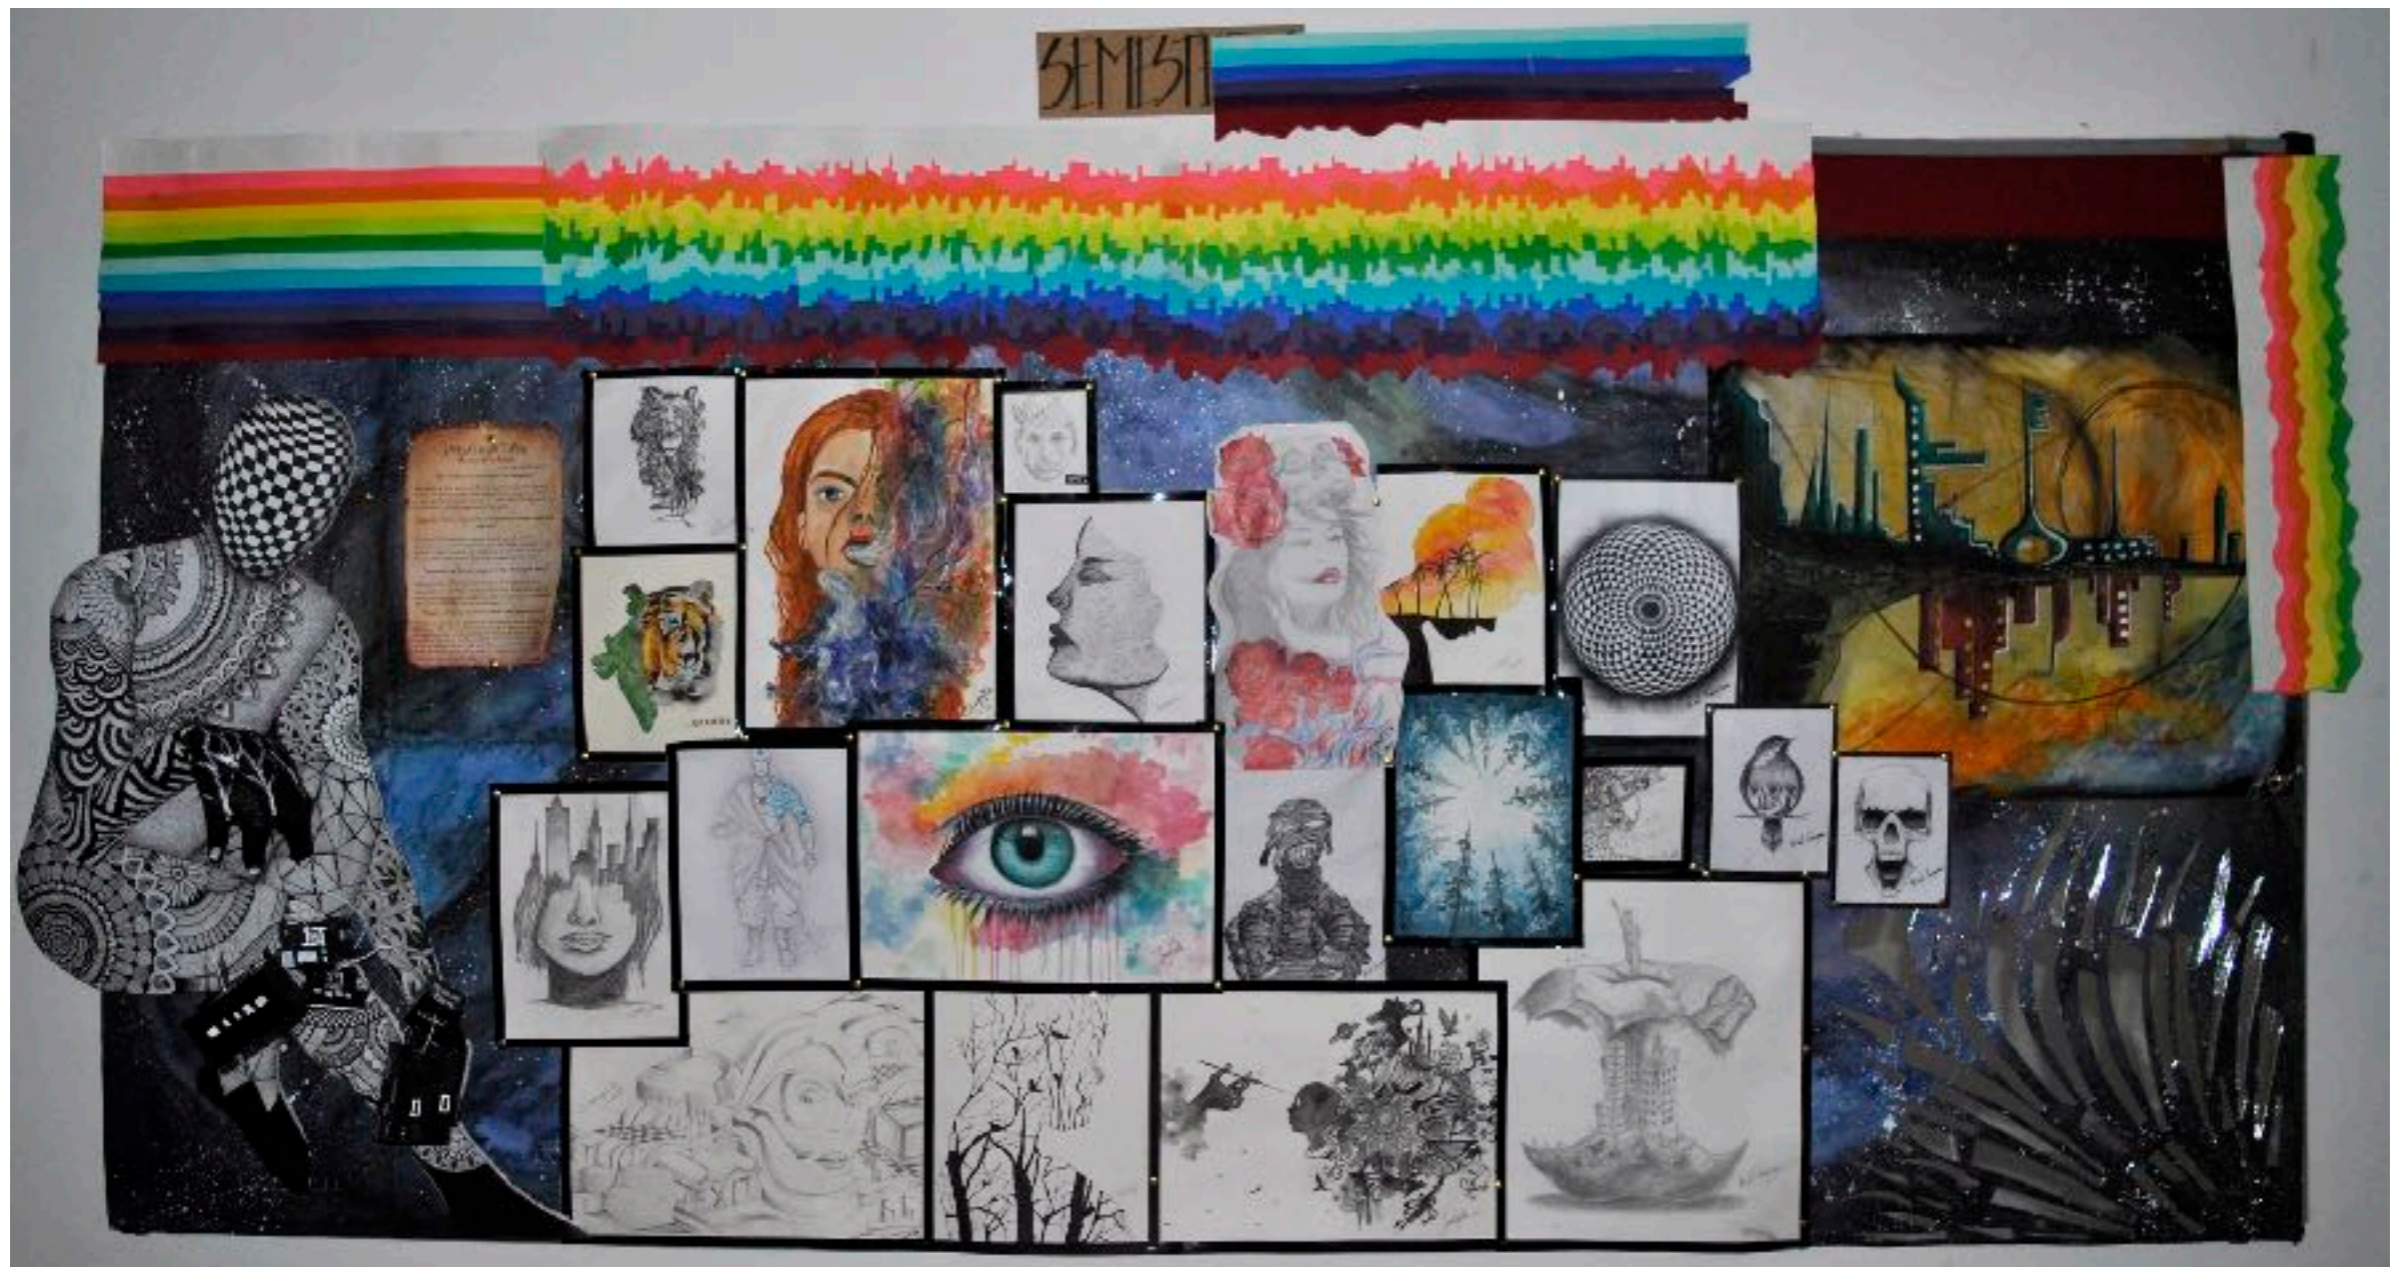

Winners:
The FIRST YEAR students were announced as winners considering the points given by the faculty

SEMESTER 2

“Imagination is letting go of existence in the sense we know it and unleashing our thoughts and ideas ,in ways even we cannot foresee.It comes in burst of images energising our minds and blows gently into the world we see. So we better take a snap and cherish our reel full of imagination because that’s what makes life more interesting”

SEMESTER 4

“What you see depends not only on what you look at but also on where you look from”

*The man signifies the importance and dominance of the architects as creators in an imaginary realm
It's a realisation for architects that their perspectives and opinions will matter the most .*

“Because in the end we are all just dreamers in an endless universe”

SEMESTER 6

“What began as a concept showcasing the human mind and the thought process that goes behind building a structure, was transformed into - the hands that lift ideas into existence.”
