Dr. Bharat N Suryawanshi explained about the IPR and background of Intellectual Property as Tangible and Intangible. He then gave broad categories of IPR as Exclusive Right, Territorial Right and Licensable Right. The resource person gave introduction about patent. A patent is an exclusive right granted for an invention, which is a product or a process that provides a new way of doing something, or offers a new technical solution to a problem. The limited monopoly right granted by the state enables an inventor to prohibit another person from manufacturing, using or selling the patented product or from using the patented process, without permission. The time period of patent is about 20 years. Also, he added about the inventions and discoveries. He also gave an invention example, Grass-Roots Innovation designed by Vikram Dinubhai Panchal of the National Institute of Design, Ahmedabad.

The resource person explained about trademarks or brand name. Then he brief about Geographical Indication. It is an indication which identifies goods as agricultural goods, “Plant more Trees, Save Water, Save Electricity, Avoid Plastics, The world is in your Hands”

Resource person/ Participants:

Dr. Bharat N Suryawanshi,
Assistant Controller of Patents & Designs,
RGNIIPM Nagpur.

515 participants from various parts of the country had attended the program.

Vision:

To promote skilling and get knowledge about IPR activities and procedures.

Measurable outcomes:

It created a great impact on the entire audience. Participants were taught on how IPR restricts copying others ideas and how this will help the development of new ideas for the betterment of the society. Participants learnt how IPR provides total control over a new innovation and its creator. They were also given a platform to discuss how small innovations influence societies at large and how they should indulge in innovating and patenting ideas that will be useful for all the classes of individuals in the society.
